

Ryunnu

Warlock / Noble / Electrical management systems sales

This packet helps you remember what you can do and which numbers to add during play. If a number differs from your character sheet, use the sheet.

TABLE ROLE

Sales and Pact Magic

Navigate awkward social pressure and spend scarce magic at the right moment.

First: Who Am I?

Public Face

Ryunnu came to Hayama recently. He works in sales for electrical management systems, and he does not yet know the town's older local context.

He is very much on the sales side, not the installation or repair side. Still, people keep treating him like a convenient electrical person.

Recent Events

A few times now, Ryunnu has gone to cafes to work on his computer and somehow been included in speed dating rounds. Women sit at his table; he tries to explain, then sometimes just gives in and participates.

A local event organizer somehow got his contact information once and later sent him a list of matches.

NPCs and Relationships

Person	Reminder
Brazilian Jiu Jitsu instructor	An instructor at Ryunnu's gym. Teaches body control, distance, calm, and how not to panic under pressure.
Old man	Still thinks Ryunnu is an electrician no matter how many times Ryunnu explains that he works in sales.
Local event organizer	Runs speed dating events. Somehow got Ryunnu's contact info and once sent him a list of matches.

Places and Clues

- Cafes where he opens his laptop to work
- Local speed dating events
- The Brazilian Jiu Jitsu gym
- The neighborhood where the old man asks for electrical help

Roleplay Anchors

- People treat him like an expert installer, but he is not the installer.
- He sometimes fails to escape awkward social situations and just participates.
- Salesperson politeness and warlock unease sit strangely side by side.

Next: What Can I Do?

Max HP	PB	Spell DC	Spell Atk	Slots	Conc. Save
8	+2	11	+3	1st x1	+0

Ability	STR	DEX	CON	INT	WIS	CHA
Modifier	+0	-2	+0	+1	+0	+1
Save	+0	-2	+0	+1	+2	+3

WIS and CHA saves are this class's saving throw proficiencies. Ability modifiers are the base numbers for skills, attacks, saves, and many other rolls.

Combat Turn Basics

Action

Your main thing on your turn. Common actions include Attack, Cast a Spell, Dash, Disengage, Dodge, Help, Hide, Search, and Use an Object.

Bonus Action

You can use this only when a feature or spell says "Bonus Action." It is not a free extra action every turn. If you have several options, usually choose one.

Movement

You can move up to your speed. Movement is separate from your action. You can split it up: move, act, then move again.

Reaction

A response to a trigger, often outside your turn. You usually get one reaction per round. Opportunity attacks and some spells or features use this.

Common Actions

Action	What It Does
Dash	Gain extra movement for this turn. Use it to close distance, flee, or reach cover.
Disengage	Your movement this turn does not provoke opportunity attacks. Use it to leave melee safely.
Dodge	Focus on defense until the start of your next turn. Attacks from enemies you can see are harder to hit, and Dexterity saves have advantage.
Help	Help an ally. If the situation fits, their next ability check or attack can have advantage.
Hide	Try to hide. The DM decides if hiding is possible; usually roll Dexterity (Stealth).
Search	Look carefully, investigate, or notice something. Usually uses Wisdom (Perception) or Intelligence (Investigation).
Use an Object	Use a door, lever, tool, potion, or important item. Magic items may have their own rules.

Roll Basics

Proficiency Bonus (PB)

Proficiency means you are trained or practiced with something. At level 1, PB is usually +2. Add it only when you are proficient with the skill, save, weapon, tool, spell attack, or spell save DC involved. Do not add PB more than once to the same roll. When unsure, use checked or circled items on the sheet, or the already calculated attack and spell numbers.

Attack Roll

To see if an attack hits, roll d20 + attack bonus. If the total is at least the target's AC, it hits. Weapon attacks usually add the ability modifier plus proficiency bonus if proficient.

Spell Attack Roll

If a spell says "spell attack," you roll d20 + spell attack bonus. If the total is at least the target's AC, it hits.

Saving Throw

A defensive roll to avoid or endure danger. If the DM calls for a Dexterity save, for example, roll d20 and add the bonus from that save line.

Spell Save DC

If a spell says the target makes a save, the caster does not roll to hit. The target rolls and tries to meet or beat your spell save DC.

Ryunnu's Numbers

- Spell attack: d20 + 3. That is proficiency bonus +2 plus Charisma modifier +1.
- Spell save DC: 11. That is 8 + proficiency bonus +2 + Charisma modifier +1.
- Concentration saves are usually Constitution saves, so Ryunnu rolls +0.
- Proficient skills: Arcana +3, History +3, Persuasion +3, Stealth +0.
- Devil's Sight requires Warlock level 2+ in the 2024 rules, so it needs to be replaced at level 1.

How To Play A Warlock

Ryunnu is an electrical management systems salesman who came to Hayama recently. He is not an installer or repair technician, but people keep treating him like one. In combat, Eldritch Blast is the default, and his single Pact Magic slot should be saved for important moments.

As A Salesman

Ryunnu sells electrical management systems. He can talk about equipment, but he is not the person who installs or fixes it. When people misunderstand, he can explain politely like a salesman, or eventually give in and let the awkward moment happen.

Pact Magic

At level 1, a warlock has one 1st-level spell slot. Pact Magic slots return after a short rest or long rest.

Charm Person and Hellish Rebuke are both legal 1st-level warlock spell choices.

Eldritch Invocation

Devil's Sight fits the darkness theme, but in the 2024 rules it requires Warlock level 2+. At level 1, choose a legal invocation such as Armor of Shadows, Eldritch Mind, Pact of the Blade, Pact of the Chain, or Pact of the Tome.

If You Are Unsure In Combat

1. Use Eldritch Blast from a safe distance as the default attack.
2. If someone damages you, consider Hellish Rebuke as a reaction.
3. If conversation or investigation can change the scene, consider Charm Person.
4. Outside combat, use sales talk, social connections, and awkward local events to pick up information.

Ryunnu's Chosen Spells And Invocation

Eldritch Blast

CANTRIP

Action. Ranged spell attack. On a hit, deal 1d10 force damage.

Ryunnu's default attack. His spell attack bonus is +3.

Mage Hand

CANTRIP

Action. Create a spectral hand that can manipulate light objects, doors, levers, containers, or traps from range.

Strong for investigation and risky objects. No damage, but very useful with clever play.

Hellish Rebuke

1ST / REACTION

Reaction. A creature that damaged you makes a Dexterity save. Failure takes 2d10 fire; success takes half.

Spends your slot. Because it triggers when you are damaged, watch for the timing.

Charm Person

1ST

Action. One Humanoid makes a Wisdom save. On a failure, it is Charmed by you.

Useful in conversation or negotiation. When it ends, the target may know you magically influenced it.

Devil's Sight

REPLACE

A darkness-seeing invocation, but in the 2024 rules it requires Warlock level 2+.

Not legal at level 1. Choose one of the level 1 invocation options in the appendix.

Questions You Can Ask During Play

- Does this person think I am an electrician?
- Can I explain this smoothly as a salesman?
- Do I know anything about this event organizer or participant?
- Can I use my Jiu Jitsu calm or sense of distance here?
