

Vincent Uminashi

Ranger / Folk Hero / Property and development coordinator

This packet helps you remember what you can do and which numbers to add during play. If a number differs from your character sheet, use the sheet.

TABLE ROLE

Scouting and Focus Fire

Find danger early and keep pressure on the key target.

First: Who Am I?

Public Face

Vincent is a local figure connected to an old Hayama family. Through family assets and relationships, he deals with land, buildings, repairs, development, contractors, and coordination.

The town is not just a backdrop for him. It is where he has lived. He has a local sense for who lives where, which houses are old, which roads people avoid, and what details feel out of place.

Recent Events

Through family and work, Vincent has contact with coastal development and construction. The town's problems are starting to look less like isolated incidents and more like connected pressure points.

As a local, he may notice small wrongness that an outsider would miss.

NPCs and Relationships

Person	Reminder
Father	A businessman with modern influence and money.
Mother	Connected to an old Hayama family line and local relationships.
House servant	A calm person who has served the family for a long time. There is an old rumor, but the truth is unclear.
Town contacts	People he meets through property, repairs, and development coordination.

Places and Clues

- Family-managed properties
- Coastal development and construction
- Old local connections
- Small town changes other people overlook

Roleplay Anchors

- He views change from a stable local perspective.
- He moves between family position and personal judgment.
- Sometimes local instinct matters more than an outsider's explanation.

Next: What Can I Do?

Max HP	PB	Spell DC	Spell Atk	Slots	Conc. Save
11	+2	12	+4	1st x2	+1

Ability	STR	DEX	CON	INT	WIS	CHA
Modifier	+0	+3	+1	+1	+2	+1
Save	+2	+5	+1	+1	+2	+1

STR and DEX saves are this class's saving throw proficiencies. Ability modifiers are the base numbers for skills, attacks, saves, and many other rolls.

Combat Turn Basics

Action

Your main thing on your turn. Common actions include Attack, Cast a Spell, Dash, Disengage, Dodge, Help, Hide, Search, and Use an Object.

Bonus Action

You can use this only when a feature or spell says "Bonus Action." It is not a free extra action every turn. If you have several options, usually choose one.

Movement

You can move up to your speed. Movement is separate from your action. You can split it up: move, act, then move again.

Reaction

A response to a trigger, often outside your turn. You usually get one reaction per round. Opportunity attacks and some spells or features use this.

Common Actions

Action	What It Does
Dash	Gain extra movement for this turn. Use it to close distance, flee, or reach cover.
Disengage	Your movement this turn does not provoke opportunity attacks. Use it to leave melee safely.
Dodge	Focus on defense until the start of your next turn. Attacks from enemies you can see are harder to hit, and Dexterity saves have advantage.
Help	Help an ally. If the situation fits, their next ability check or attack can have advantage.
Hide	Try to hide. The DM decides if hiding is possible; usually roll Dexterity (Stealth).
Search	Look carefully, investigate, or notice something. Usually uses Wisdom (Perception) or Intelligence (Investigation).
Use an Object	Use a door, lever, tool, potion, or important item. Magic items may have their own rules.

Roll Basics

Proficiency Bonus (PB)

Proficiency means you are trained or practiced with something. At level 1, PB is usually +2. Add it only when you are proficient with the skill, save, weapon, tool, spell attack, or spell save DC involved. Do not add PB more than once to the same roll. When unsure, use checked or circled items on the sheet, or the already calculated attack and spell numbers.

Attack Roll

To see if an attack hits, roll d20 + attack bonus. If the total is at least the target's AC, it hits. Weapon attacks usually add the ability modifier plus proficiency bonus if proficient.

Spell Attack Roll

If a spell says "spell attack," you roll d20 + spell attack bonus. If the total is at least the target's AC, it hits.

Saving Throw

A defensive roll to avoid or endure danger. If the DM calls for a Dexterity save, for example, roll d20 and add the bonus from that save line.

Spell Save DC

If a spell says the target makes a save, the caster does not roll to hit. The target rolls and tries to meet or beat your spell save DC.

Vincent Uminashi's Numbers

- Spell attack: d20 + 4. That is proficiency bonus +2 plus Wisdom modifier +2.
- Spell save DC: 12. That is 8 + proficiency bonus +2 + Wisdom modifier +2.
- Concentration saves are usually Constitution saves, so Vincent rolls +1.

How To Play A Ranger

Vincent is a ranger who notices danger early, tracks the most important target, and blends weapons, movement, and practical nature magic. His strengths are observation and positioning before the fight fully starts.

Favored Enemy / Hunter's Mark

Hunter's Mark is always prepared. If you expect to attack the same enemy multiple times, it is one of your strongest choices.

It requires concentration, so if you cast another concentration spell you must choose which one to keep.

Weapon Mastery

Vincent's shortsword and handaxe both use Vex. When you hit and deal damage, your next attack roll against that same creature has advantage before the end of your next turn.

The handaxe can also be thrown. You can hit a distant enemy with it, apply Vex, and make your next attack against that target easier to land.

If You Are Unsure In Combat

1. Pick the most dangerous enemy.
2. If you can attack that enemy repeatedly, use Hunter's Mark.
3. Attack with your weapon and reposition.
4. Watch terrain, exits, and enemy movement, then tell the group what you see.

Vincent's Available Spells

Hunter's Mark

ALWAYS / CONC.

Bonus action. Mark one creature. Each time you hit it with an attack, deal an extra 1d6 force damage.

Concentration. Best against a target you will keep attacking. Also useful for tracking.

Animal Friendship

1ST

Action. One Beast makes a Wisdom save. On a failure, it is Charmed by you.

Use it to calm or negotiate with animals. Harm from you or allies can break trust fast.

Longstrider

1ST

Action. Increase one ally's speed by 10 ft. It lasts a while and does not require concentration.

Good before a chase, escape, exploration scene, or fight where distance matters.

Questions You Can Ask During Play

- Would I know this place as a local?
- Can I tell anything from tracks or movement patterns?
- Can I do this while keeping Hunter's Mark up?
- Can this weapon mastery apply here?
